

LEENA MOTEN

ABOUT

Leena Moten is an Associate Attorney at Mokri Vanis & Jones' Newport Office. Leena's practice focuses on all aspects of civil litigation, with particular focus on construction defect, wrongful death, products liability, premises liability, automobile and trucking, habitability, and general liability matters. Leena takes pride in protecting her clients' interests while providing thorough and zealous legal representation.

Leena is an experienced trial attorney. As a Deputy Public Defender in the County of San Diego for more than 16 years, Leena represented a diverse group of clients who could not afford legal services in both serious misdemeanor and felony matters. She was involved in all aspects of litigation - from the review and request of discovery, negotiations, investigations, expert retention, motions and hearings to jury and bench trials.
